Criminal convictions - Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

John Hampden Grammar School aims to promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential. Criminal records will be taken into account for recruitment purposes only when the conviction is relevant. Having an 'unspent' conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background to your offence(s). As John Hampden Grammar School meets the requirements in respect of exempted questions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, all applicants who are offered employment in posts involving access to children, vulnerable adults or positions within the legal and financial field, will be subject to a criminal record check from the Criminal Records Bureau before the appointment is confirmed. This will include details of cautions, reprimands or final warnings, as well as convictions. This means that you are required to declare any convictions, cautions or reprimands which you may have, even if they would otherwise be regarded as 'spent' under this Act, and any prosecutions pending against you. Failure to disclose this information may result in disciplinary action or dismissal by the Authority and may lead to criminal proceedings. I have read the above notes on Criminal Convictions and agree to a Disclosure Check of Police Records being made if I am offered the job for which I am applying. I understand that the job for which I am applying is covered under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions Order 1975) and, consequently, no criminal conviction may be considered 'spent'.

Please tick as appropriate:

I do not have any criminal convictions held against me

I do have criminal offences or prosecutions pending against me

If you do have criminal offences held against you, you will be required to provide written details of any convictions, cautions, bind-overs or prosecutions pending should you be selected for interview. Please ensure that you bring these with you to your interview, if you are shortlisted.
